

JACK WATSON
ASCM Dayton Chapter
2022 OUTSTANDING SENIOR SCMA AWARD

Jack is a senior accounting and supply chain management major from Buffalo, NY. After school, he will be joining HFW Industries as a process engineer, where he will focus on Lean Six Sigma improvement projects as he helps to support the company's growth. He will be the fourth generation to work in the family's manufacturing business, and he is very passionate about helping to grow and glorify the blue-collar trades. Jack is an avid Buffalo Bills and Sabres fan, and in his free time, loves spending time outdoors with friends and family.
